Video & Photo Information

Thousand Pines produces a weekly video recapping the activities the campers participated in, and the information they learned. The videos are primarily used for the guest's weekly recap presentation, on our website or in a promotional presentation, or as a general-purpose preview of the Thousand Pines experience. These videos are solely the property of Thousand Pines C.C. and are given to participants as a keepsake. They are not to be used for commercial means.

Physical Activity Release

Camp activities include but are not limited to swimming, ropes course, skate-park, paintball, mountain bikes, team recreation, etc. There are risks of physical injury or harm from participating in activities. I voluntarily elect myself (or my minor/child) to participate in the activities and assume the risks of injury or harm that could result from participation. On my own behalf and that of my personal representatives and heirs, I hereby release Thousand Pines, its officers, employees, and agents from all liability for any injury or harm to me (or my minor/child) from participating in said activities. I have read and understood this release of liability.

Behavior Agreement/Discipline Policy

Please review the following camp rules and consequences for breaking the standards (and share with your minor/child if applicable). These simple standards will help ensure that every camper has a safe and successful experience.

1. Follow all normal organization/church/camp standards. Abide by all communicated camp guidelines.
2. Respect the rights of all people and their belongings. Be respectful towards and follow directions of all leadership/staff.
3. Participate in activities and maintain a good attitude. Use appropriate language at all times.
4. Keep hands, arms, and legs to yourself. Fighting, play fighting, rough-housing, and wrestling are not permitted.
5. Leave these items at home: alcohol, tobacco, all electronic devices, knives, weapons, matches/lighters, and valuables.
6. Be where you're supposed to be, Do what you're supposed to do, and Use Common Sense.

If I don't follow these standards, I realize that I am choosing to accept the consequences for my behavior:

1. Be restricted from fun activities
2. Have to spend part or all of free-time in work projects.
3. Call home to parents/guardians (if minor/child)
4. Be sent home and excluded from further attendance.

The following behaviors are examples of what a misbehaving camper could be sent home for:

1. Hitting, fighting with, or threatening another camper
2. Vandalism, theft, or other inappropriate behavior
3. Being in the opposite gender's cabin
4. Repeated violation of camp guidelines

I have reviewed the Thousand Pines Behavior Policy with my child and understand that all standards continue while in attendance at Thousand Pines. Should there be any serious difficulty with following the expectations, I support the implementation process (above) and, if necessary will leave the premises or bring my minor/child back home.
